Vol. 46, No. 38 Wright-Patterson AFB, Ohio Friday, September 23, 2005

First officially-sanctioned Air Force marathon draws runners worldwide

by Brett Turner
Skywrighter staff

Wright Patterson Air Force Base is where everyone is usually excited on the same Saturday eve after the first official Air Force event.

Runners from all 50 U.S. states and several countries, surrounded by aviation and U.S. Air Force history. This was the first year the marathon was recognized as an officially sanctioned Air Force event.

The marathon was created to tie in with the 50th anniversary of the creation of the U.S. Air Force in 1947 and is run on the Saturday nearest the anniversary every year.

Several Air Force personnel, including their service aviators, visited several times.

The day began under gray, overcast skies. Perfect weather according to many runners. Par-
